

E-News of December and January

2nd December

Fresher's Party

Every student eagerly awaits right from their time of admission for the most remarkable event of the college "FRESHER'S PARTY". The inauguration of the event started with the lamp lighting with the blessings of goddess Saraswati by our registrar Dr. Palwinder Kumar. The event was structured in three categories based on dancing, singing, games, and the main event Mr. and Ms. Fresher 2022. Ms. Fresher was Ms. Anjali and Mr. Fresher was Mr. Sahil. Ms. Personality was awarded to Ms. Radhika and Mr. Handsome was awarded to Mr. Sumit.

7th December

Aircraft Flying

Cadets from NCC Air force wing participated in aircraft flying at Patiala Aviation Club in the presence of Commanding Officer S.K. Sharma. Four students Cadet Ishu Mankotia, Cadet Samrita Devi, Cadet Doli, and Cadet Toshi attended one day training. They flew two seater micro aircraft under the guidance of Commanding Officer S.K. Sharma.

Events:

- 2nd December – Fresher's Party
- 7th December – Aircraft Flying
- 9th December – Guest Lecture
- 11th December – Bhartiya Bhasha Utsav
- 20th December – Poetry Competition
- 23rd December – Cricket Match
- 2nd January – NCC Army Cadets Class
- 4th January – Drone Dance
- 7th January – Trekking
- 13th January – Lohri Celebration
- 26th January – Republic Day Celebration

E-News of December and January

9th December

Guest Lecture

A one-day guest lecture was organized by Department of Pharmacy on the topic “Basic Principles of Organic Chemistry”. Dr. Sandeep Singh Kalsi, Associate Professor, Onkar College of Pharmacy, Sajuma, Sangrur, Punjab was the guest speaker. Dr. Kalsi has experience of more than 18 years in the area of computational chemistry, synthetic chemistry and pharmaceutical analysis. He shared his views on basic and recent advancement in pharmaceutical chemistry and how one can think about new discoveries.

11th December

Bhartiya Bhasha Utsav

Bharatiya Bhasha Utsav is being celebrated on December 11 to create “language harmony” and develop conducive environment for learning languages. Indian Languages Festival was jubilantly celebrated to give a sense of unity and introduce us to the beautiful cultural heritage and diversity of India. Our Indian languages have co-existed, complemented, and nurtured each other throughout the ages. Students made posters and wrote slogans keeping in mind the theme that was Languages of India to celebrate Bhartiya Bhasha Utsav.

“Languages shape the mind and wisdom of society and bring people together.”

E-News of December and January

20th December

Poetry Competition

Poetry is the language of imagination, of feelings, of emotional self-expression, and high art. With this thought, we at Indus International University try our best to encourage children to exhibit their skills. On 20th January poetry recitation competition was organized, 21 students participated in the competition. Mr. Nitin was awarded first prize, Ms. Anjali Thakur got second position and Ms. Anju Bala got third position. The participants came up with the poems of famous poets and a few also created their own poems.

23rd December Cricket Match

A friendly cricket match was played in Indus International University on 23rd December, between Staff and Students. The match was held at 1pm in football ground of the university. Students of different streams participated in the match. Total three short matches were played. First between students and the final match was Students vs. Staff. The final match was won by the student team which comprised students of different streams.

2nd January

NCC Army Cadets Class

Special class for NCC army cadets was organized at Indus International University. Colonel R.K. Saini Commanding Officer of 6 HP Company Una prepared the NCC Cadets for their C certificate examinations. He shared tips with students for their bright future along with some useful information. Havaldar Kartar Chand and Ex-serviceman Subedar Balbir Singh were present for this occasion.

E-News of December and January

4th January

Drone Dance

Seeing the increasing importance of drone technology and seeing the attraction of students for this, in view of which drone dance was organized in the university. An all-girls team consisting of four NCC cadets participated in the “Drone Dance, India” competition with the aim of appearing in the ‘2nd National Drone Ranking Series’. The names of the participants and their role in the act were Ishu Mankotia (B.Tech CSE 7th Sem), Drone Pilot. Samarita, (B.Tech CSE 7th Semester), Videographer & Video Editor, Dolly, (BCA 5th Semester), Choreographer of Act, Nidhi Rana, (B.Tech CSE 7th Semester), Drone Designer.

7th January
Trekking

Trekking Expedition was organized by Indus International University on January 7th. Vice Chancellor, Prof. (Dr.) Sanjay Kumar Bahl flagged off the Trekking Expedition from University Campus. He appreciated and advised the participants to enjoy the trekking, maintain discipline and follow the guidelines. Faculty members of the university along with students participated in this expedition.

E-News of December and January

"Such kinds of events help youths to keep themselves away from anti-social activities."

13th January

Lohri Celebration

Lohri was celebrated with full zeal and enthusiasm in the premises of Indus International University. The students, faculty all were immersed in the festive spirit. Lighting of the fire has been common in winter festivals throughout time and to the world it signifies the return of longer days. So, the celebration kicked off by lighting bonfire and 'Lohri Poojan'. Everyone worshipped 'Dhooni' and groundnuts and sweets were also distributed among the students. After Poojan, everyone danced and sang around the bonfire. Lohri is the harvest festival of Punjab popularly known as the bread basket state of India. Irrespective of which state or religion people belong to, Lohri was celebrated with equal enthusiasm by everyone.

E-News of December and January

26th January

Republic Day Celebration

On January 26, 1950, the Constitution of India was signed and India was declared a republic. It's a day, which every Indian is proud of. The event started with the ceremony of hoisting the Indian National Flag, National Anthem was also sung by everyone present. After the ceremony, Registrar of the university addressed the students and reminded everyone of the responsibilities they have on their shoulders to make the country proud, even with small actions. It's important that we sustain what we have received from our forefathers and add glories to it. NCC cadets were awarded their NCC 'B' certificates by Registrar Sir and the chief guests.

Placement Drives

The Training and Placement cell aims to provide students with an environment where they can use their potential to extreme along with gaining valuable experience of working in the industry, it is a network of communication between various companies seeking talented young graduates and post graduates in various disciplines. Two placement drives were Conducted in the month of December. For Emicon Advisory Services LLP final year students of various departments attended the virtual placement Drive. For Education Culture Pvt. Ltd students of B.Tech CSE and BCA expressed their interest in attending the virtual placement drive for the profile of Technical Content Writer and Network Engineer. Ms. Ishu Mankotia of B.Tech CSE was selected.

