

Guru Dronacharya Awards

7th January

A workshop on Dynamic Teacher Training was organized at Indus International University in collaboration with the prestigious Prithvi Abhyudaya Educators Association India. The program demonstrated a commitment to advancing academic skills and promoting leadership in education. The workshop was inaugurated by Indus International University Vice-Chancellor Dr. Sanjay Kumar Bahl and Registrar Dr. Jagdev Singh Rana, who welcomed the chief guest, Padmashree awardee D.S.P. Ajay Thakur. Apart from this, Deputy Director of Education Devendra Chandel, Chekku Dupka founder President of G.V.C Bhutan, Dr. Ratish Gupta, Dr. P.K. Rajput, Director of Magarishi University of Information Technology Dr. Rachna Bhimraj, Founder Uni Global Intellectual Foundation, Special Guest Manish K. Gupta President CEO Aaradhya E.K. Ehsaas Foundation and PAAI Harsh Vardhan Singh, Founder Chairman, joined in. And the keynote address was given by Preeti Chitkara, Head of International Relations. His insights on public speaking and leadership resonated with the audience, highlighting the transformative impact of effective communication in education. Workshop leadership, rich influence And there was a group panel discussion on public speaking for impact. After this fascinating discourse, Nati and Bhangra performances were given by the students of Vivekananda Public School and Indus International University. On this occasion, eminent speaker 'Shiv Kumar spoke about the emerging issues of the society. The Vice Chancellor introduced the audience to the University with an engaging power point presentation on Indus International University, emphasizing the institution's commitment to leadership in the field of early childhood education.

INSIDE THE ISSUE

Guru Dronacharya Awards

International Youth Day

Cross Country Event

Webinar

Cricket Match

Republic Day Celebration

Birthday Celebration

New Member of IIU

Mr. Sandeep Singh Kalsi

Assistant Professor
Pharmacy Department
13 years of experience

International Youth Day

12th January

National Youth Day was celebrated at Indus International University Bathu. On this occasion, University Vice Chancellor, Dr. Sanjay Kumar Bahl and Registrar of Indus International University, Dr. Jagdev Singh Rana specially participated. Dr. Sanjay Kumar Bahl stressed the important role of youth in shaping the destiny of the country. Dr. Jagdev Singh Rana echoed these sentiments by drawing parallels between the teachings of Swami Vivekananda and the responsibilities of today's youth. On this occasion, Vice Chancellor Dr. Sanjay Kumar Bahl emphasized the important role of youth in shaping the destiny of the country. Emphasizing the importance of resilience and perseverance in the face of adversity, he urged students to embrace challenges as opportunities for growth. The words of Dr. Sanjay Kumar Bahl and Dr. Jagdev Singh Rana served as a guide to guide the youth towards a future full of possibilities and possibilities.

Cross Country Event

17th January

Cross country race was organized at Indus International University on 17th January. This event is for the students to showcase their physical abilities and talents, promote camaraderie through healthy competition. Students and teachers participated in it. The race ended by going from Indus International University Bathu to Gulpala and from there back to Indus International University. In the competition, in boys' category Arjun from B.H.M. department got First place, while Anmol from the B.Pharmacy came second and D. Pharmacy Dheeraj secured third position. In girls' category, Anu Rana of B.Tech CSE got first position, while Vishakha got second and Simran got third position. The winning participants were honored with cash prizes and certificates. During the program, Vice Chancellor Dr. Sanjay Kumar Bahl motivated the students to actively participate in sports events. He emphasized that sports are an integral part of life, teaching valuable lessons of discipline, teamwork and perseverance. He highlighted how sports not only contribute to physical well-being. But it also develops qualities of leadership and flexibility.

Webinar

18th January

A webinar session on Research Methodology was organized at Indus International University Bathu, Una. The webinar session was presented by Dr. Devendra Pathak, Distinguished Professor Emeritus, Distinguished Professor and Chief Executive Officer, Foundation for Organizational Research and Education for Academy of Management Education, New Delhi. Dr. SK Jha, Professor, Department of Business Management and Commerce, IIU cordially invited them and organized the webinar session. Indeed it is a wonderful and informative session not only for the faculty and research scholars but also especially for the postgraduate students of the MBA programme. The subject of research methodology creates research mind for everyone and motivates them to do research work in a particular field. Undergraduate students got an idea for research work which is good for analyzing their topics in different ways.

Cricket Match

19th January

Business Management Department defeated Pharmacy Department in Cricket tournament organized at Indus University. A cricket tournament was organized at Indus International University on Wednesday. On this occasion, Vice Chancellor of the University, Dr. Sanjay Kumar Bahl, participating as the chief guest, highlighted the importance of physical fitness and balanced lifestyle for the overall development of the students. Students from various departments participated in this tournament organized in the state-of-the-art sports facilities of the university. Registrar of the University, Dr. Jagdev Singh Rana presided over the valedictory function and distributed trophies to the winners. There was a cricket match between the Business

Management Department and the Pharmacy Department. In this, Shajit Bhakayane felicitated the department in the closing ceremony. He reiterated the University's commitment to promote a holistic educational experience that goes beyond the confines of the classrooms. Dr. Rana said that sports play an important role in shaping the character and personality of a person. It teaches valuable life skills like teamwork, leadership and resilience that carry over into academic pursuits and professional life are equally important. Students showcased their talent and sportsmanship in the tournament.

Republic Day Celebration

26th January

Indus International University celebrated Republic Day with pomp and show. In an emotion-filled celebration, Indus International University celebrated the 75th Republic Day with grandeur and patriotic fervor. Surendra Sharma, Managing Director of Magic Blades, participated as the chief guest in this program organized in the university grounds. The ceremony began with the hoisting of the national flag by Surendra Sharma and singing of the national anthem. At the same time, Vice Chancellor Dr. Sanjay Kumar Bahl, in organizing the function and expressed gratitude towards the chief guest and university staff for their tireless efforts. Registrar, Dr. Jagdev Singh Rana echoed these sentiments, emphasizing the importance of such occasions in fostering a sense of national pride and unity among the student community. In his inspiring speech, Surendra Sharma spoke eloquently about the potential of the youth in shaping the future of the nation. He stressed the role of education in nurturing responsible and visionary citizens.

Birthday Celebration

Birthdays are more than just a mark on the calendar; they are a celebration of life, growth, and the precious moments that shape our journey.

Birthday of Registrar Dr. Jagdev Singh Rana was celebrated in the university on 5th January, 2024. May the year ahead be filled with successful endeavors and professional accomplishments.

